President's Message ... Peter DeSciscio

All Things Must Pass....

Although you will be reading this message in 2002, I am writing it as 2001 comes to a close. I hope that everyone enjoyed the holidays and I wish you all a Happy Healthy New Year.

As I reflect on 2001, one cannot help to think of how the September 11th tragedy has changed us all and the way we view the world. We have all altered the way we do things, be it good, bad, or indifferent. Another recent event was the passing of George Harrison, the second Beatle to be taken from us. For the large majority of us, the Beatles have been a staple of American life. We all grew up with them one way or another and they have probably influenced our lives in some way. I for one was influenced by them which started my interest in music. This year has changed the world as much as when the Beatles landed in America,ironically, the same city as the site of the World Trade Center bombing. It is cliché to want to find the good in a tragedy; but maybe in light of this past years events, we all have grown closer, and have become more sympathetic. Maybe we should reflect more on our own humanity and our purpose here on earth. In a volunteer organization such as ours, it is incumbent upon each one of us to lend a helping hand when necessary. We will only be remembered for our deeds and actions not by the material things we surround ourselves with.

Faithfully,

MCDS Nominates Dr. Ethan Glickman for Prestigious "Golden Apple Award"

MCDS has submitted an application and references nominating our own Dr. Ethan Glickman for The Outstanding Leadership in Mentoring Award as part of the ADA's Golden Apple Awards Program. This is a national award recognizing an individual ADA member dentist.

It is the MCDS Executive Board's belief that Ethan's dedication to MCDS and his hard work in developing, nurturing and maintaining what has now become a flourishing MCDS Mentor Program should be recognized by the ADA.

It is a tribute to what Ethan has accomplished that the NJDA has been trying to duplicate his Mentor course formula of easy access, low or no cost CE on the state level this year. His MCDS Mentor program has been a tangible member benefit, helping MCDS not only with retention of existing members, but also the attraction of new or non-members to join our organization. MCDS wishes Ethan luck with his nomination and recognizes his great achievements on our behalf.

Needy dentists and their families getting help

Nearly half the money collected through the ADA American Tragedy Fund has been disbursed to nine dentists and their families affected by the events of September 11, ADA executive director Dr. James B. Bramson disclosed November 9.

Dr. Bramson said initial grants, based on recommendations from the New York State Dental Association (NYSDA), amounted to $135,000, about half the $275,000 contained in the Tragedy Fund, a temporary fund established as the ADA's quick response to the terrorist attacks.

He said the funds were disbursed in amounts ranging from $5,000 to $30,000, depending on the loss sustained, and that additional grants could be expected soon. For this first round of disbursements, checks went out by overnight express November 9.

Shortly after the fund was established, NYSDA officials and representatives of the local dental society formed a committee to evaluate need and to make recommendations to the ADA. New York dentists reportedly have raised about $230,000 on their own for the relief effort.

ADA and New York dental officials agreed that monies from the ADA fund would be disbursed first, before tapping into funds collected locally.

On a related matter, Dr. Albert Guay, the ADA's chief policy officer, noted that one of the Association's existing funds, the ADA Emergency Fund Inc., has so far approved 21 grants of $2,500 each to help cover the immediate needs of dentists and families affected by the September 11 attacks. MCDS Board of Trustees Report

This two-hour program followed his last seminar, Digital Imaging Pt 1. This program demonstrated how to use computer-imaging software to organize our dental pictures taken with a digital camera, 35 mm regular camera or our intra-oral camera. I would like to thank our fellow MCDS member, Dr. Martin Jablow for his excellent presentations on the types of software needed to organize and use our dental pictures effectively. His lively and easy to understand format made the technology appear simple to use. We left with the information needed to use this software in our office immediately. Two CEU credits were awarded to the 50 people who attended.

2. Oral Manifestations of Systemic Disease -October 25, 2001 by Dr Arnold Rosenheck Assistant Dean; UMDNJ and OralCDx – Computer Assisted Oral Brush Biopsy Analysis by Mark Rutenberg, MSEE ,President /CEO of OralScan Laboratories, Inc. OralCDx is a simple to use yet extremely effective diagnostic tool for the early detection of oral cancer that each of us can easily incorporate into our practice for those innocuous "wait-and-observe" lesions. This course provided important information on clinical use, as well as information on billing and reimbursement for OralCDx. OralScan Labs Inc. donated $500 to MCDS to help sponsor this program and sent FREE OF CHARGE - CDx Brush Biopsy kits (normal price to purchase would be $29.95) to the 35 Dentists who attended the seminar and would like to use this procedure in their office. This Biopsy kit also included a simple "How to Use" Video and all the patient literature to get started immediately.

3. Scaling & Root Planing-November 8, 2001 by Dr. Richard Kahn.This program explained how scaling & root planning in the proper light of total patient care is the cornerstone of successful periodontal therapy. I would like to thank our fellow MCDS member, Dr. Richard Kahn for his excellent presentation. He spoke directly to the issues regarding scaling and root planning. His program was well presented and he spoke with a true passion for this topic. Two CEU credits were awarded to the 47 people who attended.

All three seminars were available to our members free of charge, as a member benefit of MCDS.

I would like to thank our fellow MCDS member, Dr. Arnold Rosenheck and Mr. Rutenberg, owner of OralScan Labs. for their excellent presentations on this very important subject. The information was well presented and we left with the knowledge and ability to perform these Brush-Biopsy procedures in our office. Three CEU credits were awarded to the 56 people who attended.

We also offered these seminars as a "one time courtesy promotion" to the non-member Dentists of Middlesex County. We wanted these non-member Dentists see first hand the type of programs and benefits that we extend to the members of MCDS. Hopefully they will realize the value and see that becoming a member of MCDS has many rewards.

We were very pleased that 4 non-member Dentists attended the seminar on Oral Manifestations of Systemic Disease & OralCDx – Computer Assisted Oral Brush Biopsy Analysis and 6 non-member Dentists attended the seminar on Scaling & Root Planing.

Respectfully submitted
Mitch Weiner, DMD, Secretary

Mark Millstein no longer at NJDA

Mark Millstein, Director of Dental Health and Education and a 26 year veteran of NJDA, was relieved of his duties on Monday, November 12, 2001. At press time, details of Mr. Millstein's departure were unclear. No official statement has been released from NJDA to component editors and the official summary of the NJDA Board of Trustees meeting on Wednesday, November 14 contains no mention of the termination. The decision to give Mr. Millstein notice appears to have come from NJDA Administration and top Officers as the State Board of Trustees members from each component were not consulted in advance.

It is without question that Mr. Millstein had established tremendous goodwill with the membership throughout the state in his 26 years of service. His approachability and willingness to go out of his way of behalf of individual members will be missed. Should the NJDA administration present a statement to the membership that clarifies the ambiguity of Mr. Millstein's termination, it will be printed in the next issue of this newsletter. We wish Mr. Millstein the best of luck in his future pursuits.
